

LIFE GROUP STUDY GUIDE:

(60-minute session—08-22-21)

Today message, marks the beginning of a new series called: “The Compassionate Christ.” Over the next several weeks we will be looking at the different responses to Jesus’ ministry efforts in the region of Galilee.

For This Week:

- Take a minute and reflect back to a time in your life when you were left amazed by a person, place, or thing.
- Was the amazement positive or negative?
- What amazed Jesus during His earthly ministry?

What was it that amazed Jesus so much about the Centurion?

I. He cared about _____:

What was so unusual about the actions of the centurion?

How were Romans advised to deal with old, sick, and broken servants?

What signs indicate that we are people of faith? Share a few ideas:

- _____
- _____
- _____

II. He believed in the Lord’s _____:

What did the centurion believe? How was his belief expressed?

Do we have the kind of faith that would catch the Lord’s attention?

In the message we said, “Jesus has the power to do anything that we ask by His powerful word.” The question then follows: “What do you do when your prayers aren’t answered in the way/s that we might think best or desire?”

Take a few minutes to read or survey Psalm 91. This is a passage that is often quoted in the Facebook world of faith. On Facebook and in in person conversations people often quote Psalm 91 like a spell or incantation that wards off evil. What does Psalm 91 teach and what does it not teach? Why do people isolate Psalm 91 from the rest of the psalms and Scripture? How did Satan use Psalm 91? What was Jesus’ response to Satan?

It all boils down to this: _____
